FUJIFILM Graphic Systems U.S.A., Inc.

Corporate Profile

Who We Are

FUJIFILM Graphic Systems U.S.A., Inc. is the nation's largest distributor of equipment, consumables and technical services for the graphic communications industry. Representing hundreds of suppliers at branch locations across the country, Fujifilm provides its customers with products and technologies from best-in-class manufacturers as well as a nationwide network of technical service and support.

Headquartered in Valhalla, N.Y., Fujifilm distributes products and services for all areas of the graphic communications industry, including: electronic prepress equipment; computer workstations and software; file servers and networking solutions; consumables and hardware for offset lithography and flexography; pressroom supplies and chemicals; post-press and finishing equipment; professional 35mm films and papers; and personalized, consultative services.

FUJIFILM Graphic Systems U.S.A., Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of FUJIFILM Corporation. The company underwent a change in brand identity in October of 2006 and also unveiled a new corporate brand logo.

What We Do

Fujifilm remains committed to providing customers with the knowledge, expertise, support and best-in-class products. Drawing upon Fujifilm's worldwide reputation for excellence, as well as the advancements and achievements gained from our dedication to research and development. Coupled with the strategic partnerships we've formed here in the United States, we've established a strong foundation on which to grow.

Fujifilm has created a team of experts, poised to answer questions, offer advice and help navigate customers through the ever-changing graphic arts industry. We not only help customers make sense of new technologies and developments, but we also work with them to develop the capabilities they need to operate efficiently and stay ahead of the competition.

Our customers rely on us to be responsive and knowledgeable of both the industry and their individual operations. Our service levels and technical expertise consistently enhance our customers' businesses and their customer relationships because of the quality and excellence it enables them to achieve.

Fujifilm is fully committed to its customers, which range from commercial printers, color separators, service bureaus and graphic design/art studios to newspapers, publishers and advertising agencies. Fujifilm offers total solutions from the world's premiere manufacturers, delivered promptly and completely, accurately billed and competitively priced to all major markets in the United States.

Whether it's information on an emerging technology or reliable delivery of supplies, customers know they can rely on Fujifilm.
